ETS Seeking Raters for the California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP)

Educational Testing Service (ETS) invites California educators to participate in the hand scoring of California's Smarter Balanced Online Summative Assessments for the spring 2016 administration. Participants will score student responses for English language arts/literacy or mathematics, including short written responses, essays, and performance tasks.

Hand scoring is an excellent opportunity for educators to become more familiar with this new generation of student assessments.

Interested applicants should apply by selecting the appropriate link below. Scoring will take place from March 2016 through July 2016. Raters who successfully pass the certification exam will be eligible to score the assessments. Scoring is online and is performed by the Rater from his or her home or office under the supervision of an assigned Scoring Leader.

Raters are scheduled on the basis of program needs and according to their availability.

- Four hour weekday, weekend, or evening shifts are available.
- Eight hour weekend shifts (or weekday shifts when school is not in session) are available.

To realize the full benefits of the operational scoring experience, a commitment of 40 or more hours is anticipated.

You will receive training and certification. The pay rate for scoring is $20 an hour for California educators.
